International Touch Brought To Torrance

By NORMA MATTAUCH

"American movies are certainly the most wonderful in the world," exclaimed Christa Volkman and Carl Hoybe, Torrance foreign exchange students, who arrived here just about 19 days ago—Christa came from Vienna and Carl from Denmark. They arrived in New York aboard the Netherland's Arosahul ship along with some 700 other foreign exchange students in the USA. They remained 24 hours in New York city and visited many historical buildings.

"The beautiful United Nations building impressed me very much," quoted Christa, "and the skyline of New York is just like I had seen in pictures and books."

Foster Parents
They arrived in Los Angeles via United Airlines and were met at the airport by their foster parents. Christa will stay with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harter, 3435 West 226th st., and Carl will stay with Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Pulliam, 1734 Elm st.

This was Christa's first faraway trip from her parents and friends. "My family and two girl friends went to the railway station in Vienna with me. We were happy for a few minutes saying so long and in the next moment we were all crying over my departure—but when I got on the train the sadness left me and I was really looking forward to my first real adventure."

'Blue Jeans'
When Christa arrived in Los Angeles the first article of clothing that she noticed that was so different from anything that she had seen at home was the "All-American blue-jean." She has since added a pair to her wardrobe.

Of course she still likes her own way of dressing and for her interview she wore a lovely little Dirndl—a peasant style blouse, square neckline, and over her attire she wore an apron which is considered part of the Dirndl-style of dress.

Carl likes the Southern California weather much better than the hot 103 degree temperature that he encountered upon his arrival in New York. "The temperature in Denmark drops to about 17 degrees in the winter and is usually about 50 degrees or 60 degrees in the summer—and I thought that I'd pass out in New York with the hot weather, all I wanted to do was to sleep and eat," quoted Carl.

Both Christa and Carl agreed that we have the best quality and variety of ice cream.

The architectural design of our freeways is amazing, thought both youngsters, the fact that an automobile is able to drive on one level while another automobile is driving on the lower level.

Select English
Christa and Carl both selected English as their choice language while going to school in their native country. Christa has studied our language for at least six years and Carl studied English for about five years.

In questioning Christa as to what the average young lady would wear for dress attire out on a date with a beau, her opinion matched the opinion of most American girls, that a plain but smartly styled dress is always the best.

wear pink and lavender trousers just like here," quoted Carl, "the style of dressing in Denmark is very similar to the American way of dress."

Christa's father has an export-import firm, and one item that he imports is the California lemon.

Carl's father has two radio and two TV shops—Carl himself plans to go into the same field of endeavor. Christa and Carl with their warm personalities are bound to make many friends during their stay in Torrance.
